FOR RELEASE October 29th

Miss Kirkwood, Sun-Press

Mr. Edward B. Henning, Assistant to the Director, ^{of} ~~at~~ The Cleveland Museum of Art, will ^{give a series of} ~~lecture~~ on FOUNDATIONS OF MODERN ART on six Wednesdays for members of the Museum beginning November 8th from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Henning will cover the development of European art between the years 1905 and 1925, demonstrating that the ideas and forms of art which developed in this period provide the basis for contemporary art. Some of the artists to be considered are Matisse, Picasso, Braque, Mondrian, Klee, and Kandinsky and those of the Expressionistic, Italian Futuristic, Dadaistic, and Surrealistic movements.
